GERMAN PLOT TO INVADE INDIA IS UNCOVERED

New York Police Arrest a German and Seized Official Documents

SOUGHT TO INTEREST CHINESE GOVERNMENT

Von Igel of Welland Canal Plot Fame, Directed the Operations

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, March 6.—Dr. C. Hanador Chakiberty, a Hindoo physician and Dr. Ernest Skunner, 34, described as a German, were arrested today on charges of conspiring to set up a military expedition against a foreign country on friendly relations with the United States. The police say the men confessed that they plotted under direction of Wolf von Igel to invade India by way of China. Von Igel, indicted but never tried for complicity in an alleged plot to destroy the Welland canal, is with Count von Bernstorff former German ambassador to the United States, who is approaching Copenhagen on the steamer Frederik VIII.

From Von Igel, according to the police, Dr. Chakiberty and Skunner who have been suspected for some time, received $60,000, the Hindoo posing as a Persian merchant, obtained a passport which enabled him to get to Berlin. In this connection an additional charge of fraudulently obtaining a passport has been made against the physician.

Dr. Chakiberty, according to the alleged confession, revealed his plans of an invasion of India to certain officials in Berlin and then returned to New York where he and Von Igel prepared the literature printed in various native Indian languages. In the house in West 20th Street where the two men were arrested today the police seized large quantities of literature and found a complete chemical laboratory.

After the literature was prepared according to the police, Dr. Chakiberty and Skunner employed as their agent an influential Chinaman whom they sent to his native country with the idea of interesting his government in a plan to ship arms and ammunition from the United States to China where with the Chinese government's permission they were to be stored until the time set for the invasion.

The police said the two men declared they had heard nothing from their Chinese representative and didn't know what success, if any, he had.

In the laboratory Skunner was endeavoring, according to the police, to compound a preparation to be used "to disguise contraband of war." The character of this preparation he refused to disclose. Ten thousand small aluminum boxes about the size of a pill box were seized, together with what appeared to be official papers. The latter have been turned over to government agents.

SUPREME COURT UPHOLDS COMPULSORY INSURANCE

Washington, March 6.—The first compulsory workmen's compensation or industrial insurance law—that of Washington state—came before the supreme court today and was upheld as constitutional. The court also upheld as constitutional the New York state compulsory compensation law and the Iowa voluntary compensation law.

London, March 6.—The American schooner John G. McCullough has been captured on the charge of attempting to run the blockade. She was taken to Falmouth where her cargo is being removed for the prize court.

FOUR ARE ON TRIAL FOR PLOT TO KILL ENGLISH PREMIER

London, March 6.—The trial of the four persons charged with conspiring to murder Premier David Lloyd-George and Arthur Henderson, labor member of the war council, began today at the Old Bailey before Justice Low. The defendants who were held for trial after a hearing at Derby last month as a result of the exposure of the poison conspiracy in which they were alleged to be engaged, are Mrs. Alice Wheeldon and her two daughters, Miss Ann Wheeldon and Mrs. Alfred George Mason, and Mrs. Mason's husband.

The case was prosecuted by Attorney General Frederick E. Smith, with whom were associated Hugo Young and A. H. Bodkin. The defendants were represented by S. H. Riza.

WARM WELCOME FOR SOLDIERS OF LICKING COUNTY

Citizen Legion Plans Reception and Dinner For Thursday Eve

PATRIOTIC ORDERS ARE INVITED TO TAKE PART

National Guard and Army Officers Past and Present Are Invited

Newark's welcome to Licking County's returning soldiers will be held on Thursday evening of this week at the Grand Army hall. The reception will extend from 7 to 8 o'clock and the public is invited to be present and individually clasp hands with these young men who have so creditably represented Newark and all Licking county in the federal army while guarding the Mexican border since early last summer.

Co. G Fourth Ohio Infantry was one of the best drilled and most efficient companies in the federal army. Most of its members were O. S. U. students. Four or five of Licking county's soldiers served in other organizations. A corrected list will be published tomorrow.

While this function is given under the auspices of the Citizen Legion, all patriotic orders and bodies of Newark are cordially invited to be at least represented by a group of their officers and members. Uniforms and badges will be in good form. All former and present officers of the regular army and national guard are invited to be present. The women of Newark should also be present.

After the public reception is over a supper will be served in the dining room by the women of the Licking County Corps. Tickets 50 cents to all but the guests.

Tickets will be on sale Wednesday and Thursday at Erman's Drug Store. Tickets should be purchased early that the women in charge may know how many plates will be needed.

BRITISH ATTACK FAILS

NEW TAX MEASURE NOW BEFORE HOUSE FOR FINAL ACTION

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, March 6.—Democratic members of the lower house of the legislature held a caucus at noon today and decided to follow their announced program of quitting active work Thursday and recessing until March 20, the date set for final adjournment of the general assembly.

The administration tax measure, already passed by the senate, was to come before the house this afternoon for final action.

House Republicans today were hearing to demand that the proposed election investigating commission urged by Governor Cox be made bi-partisan. The measure providing for the commission was introduced yesterday.

CLOTURE RULE MAY NOT PASS SENATE; G. O. P. OPPOSES IT

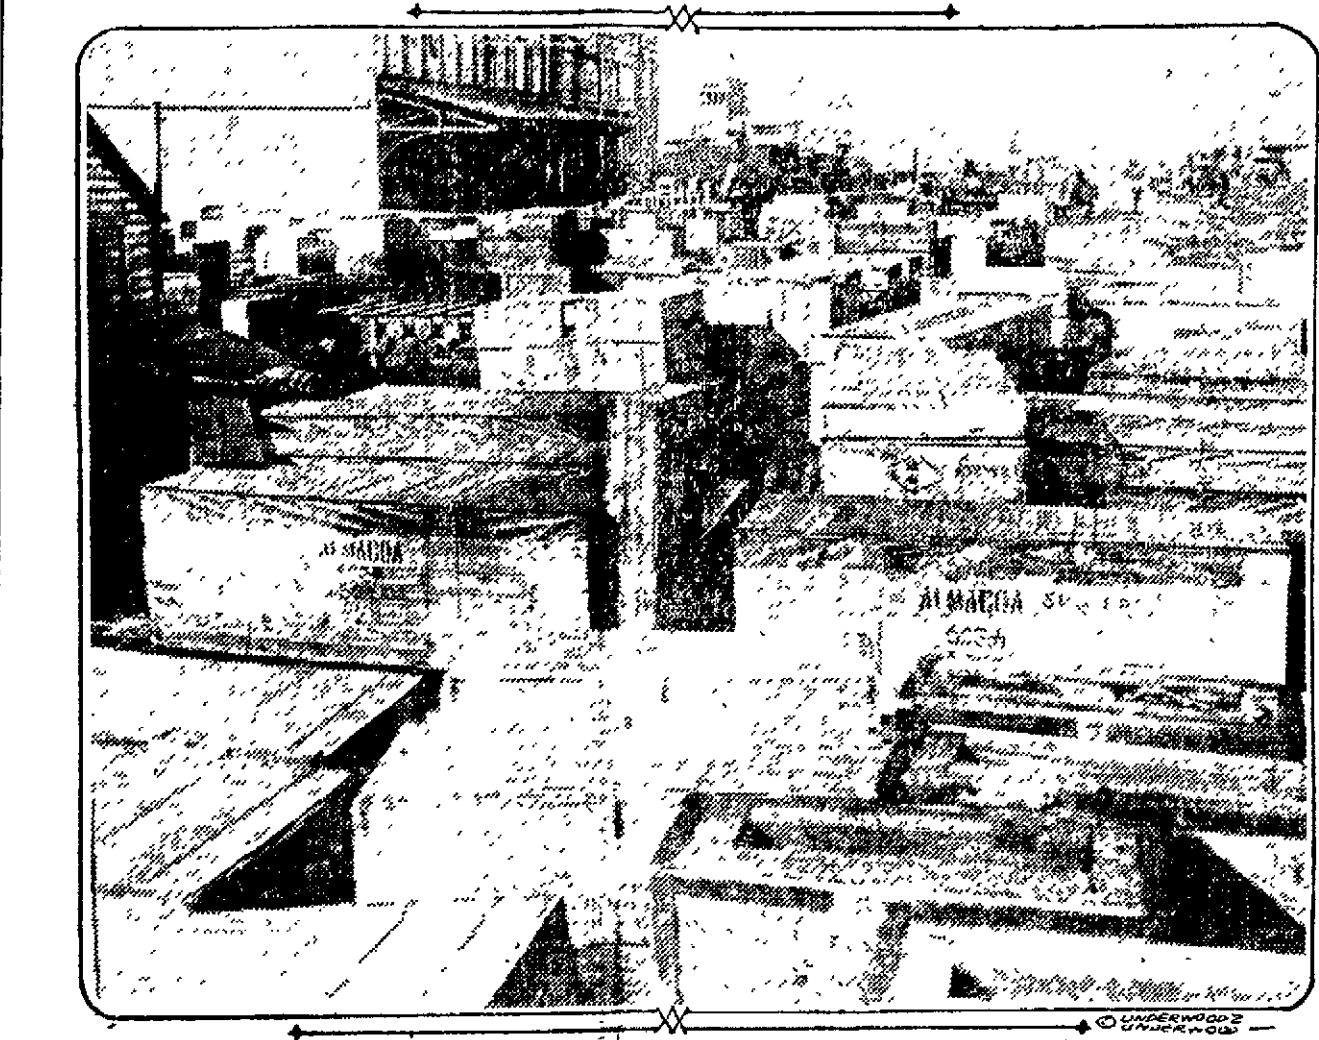

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, March 6.—The senate of the Sixty-fifth congress today held the first business meeting of the special session called primarily to pass on 1400 presidential appointments, with indications of a determined fight to change the rules to limit debate and prevent filibusters such as that which prevented passage of the armed neutrality bill Sunday. Democrats held a caucus before the session to determine their party program and choose a majority leader. Senator Martin of Virginia was unopposed as a candidate.

Thirty-three senators have signed an agreement to support a cloture rule, but most republicans and perhaps a few democrats are expected to oppose it, and its adoption appears doubtful. Advocates of the change rely strongly for help on President Wilson's statement denouncing the filibuster on the neutrality bill. The attitude of the sixteen new senators, all but one of whom were sworn in yesterday, is yet to be determined.

INDIANA PRIMARY

(Associated Press Telegram)
Indianapolis, March 6.—Primary elections to select nominees for municipal offices were being held in practically all of the cities of Indiana today. In many places the contests have been spirited. Women will have the privilege of voting at the final election in November, but not today.

GERMANY'S RUTHLESS U-BOAT WARFARE TIES UP MILLIONS IN AMERICAN GOODS DESTINED FOR ALLIED AND NEUTRAL PORTS

Boxes of machinery lying at 24th street and Hudson river awaiting shipment to Spain. Germany's ruthless U-boat warfare coupled with the senate's inability to pass the armed ship bill has tied up millions of dollars worth of goods in New York destined for allied and neutral ports. Germany's blockade of Europe produces almost the same effect as would a blockade of America.

BREAK WITH AUSTRIA NOT PRECLUDED BY NEW DECLARATION

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, March 6.—Austria's note declaring adhesion to the general principles of unrestricted submarine warfare holds out little, if any hope that a break between the United States and the Vienna governments may be avoided. The complete official view of the Austrian communication will not be known until after President Wilson and Secretary Lansing have carefully studied the official text, which was before them today. Also the subject was scheduled to come up for discussion at today's meeting of the cabinet. It was considered probable that the course of the United States toward Austria might tentatively at least be determined upon then.

Austria's effort to substitute for the individual warning every merchant ship is entitled by international law to receive before being torpedoed a general warning to all vessels not to enter barred zones, cannot be accepted by this government. Furthermore, the United States contends that neutrals aboard enemy merchant ships are entitled to safety. The declaration in the Austrian note that the "principle that neutrals in war time also should enjoy the advantages of freedom of the seas refers only to neutral vessels, not to neutral persons aboard enemy vessels" in no way coincides with the position of the United States.

Neither is the United States disposed to permit establishment by Austria of a rule that war on the seas involving reprisals is "an affair for settlement between belligerents" when the interests, rights and lives of neutrals are affected.

The unofficial text does not make it clear just what intentions Austria has toward neutral ships.

Another portion of the communication which undoubtedly will not meet with the approval of the United States is that having to do with defensively armed merchant ships. Austria's assertion that her previous assurances did not apply to armed merchant vessels was received with some surprise. The broad declaration that armed merchantmen "are to be regarded as pirate vessels which may be destroyed" was regarded as being especially significant in view of the intentions of the United States regarding armament for its merchant shipping.

Notwithstanding the perplexity created in the minds of officials with a portion of the Austrian argument, the extreme reluctance felt here for a break with Germany's chief ally and the fact that Austria also does not desire it, will assure the note a most friendly reading and every effort will be made to harmonize the relations of the two governments if it can be done without surrender by either.

WON'T HEAR APPEAL OF LICKING SCHOOL CASE

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, March 6.—The Ohio supreme court today refused to hear the appeal of the board of education of Licking township, Licking county, seeking reversal of a judgment by which it was ordered to pay tuition for pupils attending schools in Thorn township, Perry county while living in Licking township district, but more than one and one-half miles from the Licking township school.

KOLB'S ACCOMPLICE ARRESTED AT HOBOKEN

(Associated Press Telegram)
Hoboken, March 6.—Another man was taken into custody here today by the police on suspicion of being implicated in a plot to blow up munition factories with Fritz Kolb, a German who was arrested on that charge yesterday and whose room were found two bombs and materials for making others. The identity of the second man was carefully guarded by the police.

The police planned to arraign Kolb some time today.

The new suspect was Hans Schwartz who says he is a chemist. He is 37 years old and is held as a suspicious person. Schwartz made a long statement to Chief of Police Hayes, in which he revealed, the police allege, plans for another explosion at Black Tom, N. J., yesterday, with Kolb and himself as the conspirators.

HOUSE BILL WOULD ABOLISH THE STATE BOARD OF HEALTH

Columbus, March 6.—By a vote of 66 to 35, the lower house of the legislature today passed the Wright bill abolishing the state board of health and providing for the appointment of a state health commissioner and an advisory council of five members. The measure already had been passed by the senate and Governor Cox signed it.

The vote by which the measure passed the house, was a strictly party vote. The Republicans voted solidly against it. When the bill becomes a law it will break a deadlock of many months in the present health board over the selection of a secretary.

Members of the advisory council will receive $100 a year and their expenses and will select the health commissioner and fix his salary. The advisory council will be appointed by the governor.

The house also passed the Clark bill, designed to assist in reducing the cost of living by creating a state bureau of markets in the department of agriculture. The bill is a Republican measure. It was passed by a vote of 84 to 6 and now goes to the senate.

LAW TO AID AMERICAN SHIPPING HELD INVALID

Washington, March 6.—The clause in the tariff law granting a five per cent. discount in duties to imports brought in American ships or ships of nations with which the United States has favored nation treaties was annulled today as unconstitutional by the supreme court.

Through Justice Holmes the court held that the discount clause designed aid in upbuilding the American merchant marine was imperatively at stake because it conflicted with existing treaties. It was held inapplicable to American vessels and to those of 22 foreign nations having treaties.

STOCK BUYER PASSES AWAY.

Dela., March 6.—Harry Donovan, one of the best known stock buyers in Ohio, died at his home here last night, following an illness of six weeks.

ZIMMERMANN AGAIN DEFENDS HIS SCHEME AGAINST AMERICA

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, March 6.—The German government's plan for involving Mexico and Japan in war with the United States, in event of hostilities between Germany and America, was defended in an address before the reichstag by the foreign secretary, Dr. Alfred Zimmermann, as quoted in a Reuter dispatch from Amsterdam. Replying to objections raised by a Socialist member to the Mexican proposals, Dr. Zimmermann said:

"We were looking out for all of us, in the event of there being the prospect of war with America. It was a natural and justified precaution. I am not sorry that, through its publication in America, it also became known in Japan."

"For the dispatch of these instructions a secure way was chosen which at present is at Germany's disposal. How the Americans came into possession of the text which went to America in special secret code we do not know. That these instructions should have fallen into American hands is a misfortune, but that does not alter the fact that the step was necessary for our patriotic interests."

HORN MUST STAND TRIAL FOR CARRYING DYNAMITE

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, March 6.—Warner Horn, the German reservist lieutenant who dynamited the international bridge near Vanceboro, Maine, in 1915, today lost his habeas corpus suit in the supreme court in which he sought to avoid being tried at Boston for alleged transportation of explosives on passenger trains.

The court did not decide Horn's contentions that, in a belligerent act against Canada his German army commission exempted him from American prosecution and made him punishable only by the state department. The court said Horn's appeal was not authorized, and dismissed it.

(Associated Press Telegram)

EMPLOYEES MUST BE CONSIDERED BY BIG BUSINESS

Speaker at Dinner of Merchant Bureau Urges Practical Education

DENOUNCES SENATORS WHO SHAMED NATION

Local Men Discuss Questions of Interest Locally—Dinner a Success

"Business efficiency has developed so far in recent years that overhead expense has been reduced to the minimum," said Martin A. Pierce, of Canton, at the dinner of the merchant bureau of the Chamber of Commerce last night, "but in developing this efficiency, the human factor has been neglected. The point has now been reached when overhead expense can no longer be reduced, when the trend will be upward. But big business must now turn its attention to consideration of the employees and develop this factor in its business which will result in greater efficiency."

Mr. Pierce was discussing the subject, "The Human Factor in Business Success." He said that the time had come when there must be a closer relationship between executives and those under them. He also said that a warmer personal relationship must exist between the man with something to sell and his customer. He referred to many business actions of successful merchants of note, which were experiments a few years ago, but which have since become accepted as common business principles.

He urged a change in the educational system which would give the boys and girls released from the public schools, a practical training which would make them fit instead of misfits when they became employees in the business world.

He closed his address with a scathing denunciation of the group of senators who blocked the legislation in Washington which would have clothed President Wilson with power to protect the dignity and honor of the nation in the present international crisis. Mr. Pierce said that he had voted for Justice Hughes last November but nevertheless was thankful that there was no change in the administration yesterday at Washington. He urged every man to stand solidly behind the president in this great crisis.

J. M. Bobb, president of the Manufacturers Association, presided.

ARMED NEUTRALITY BILL IS INTRODUCED AGAIN IN SENATE

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, March 6.—Senator Lodge of Massachusetts reintroduced in the senate today the armed neutrality bill which failed of passage Sunday. When he asked its reference to the foreign relations committee, Senator Thomas of Colorado made the point of order that congress was not in session, which Vice President Marshall sustained.

President Wilson is believed to have received late today an opinion from legal advisers as to his power to arm American merchantmen. Soon afterward he went to the state, war and navy building. Nothing was made public.

NEUTRALS MUST SUFFER LOSSES IN DANGER ZONE

Austria's Reply to U. S. Note Says They Must Accept Responsibility

NEUTRAL VESSELS ONLY HAVE RIGHT TO SEAS

Persons On Belligerent Vessels Forfeit Right to Protection of Nations

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, March 6.—The American ambassador at Vienna has been handed the reply of the Austrian government to the American note inquiring as to the position of the Austrian government in regard to the unrestricted submarine warfare, according to a Vienna dispatch to Reuters by way of Amsterdam.

The reply declares that neutrals are responsible for losses they suffer by entering territory where warlike operations are taking place.

The American note which was dispatched to Vienna on February 18, asked specifically whether the Austrian assurances given following the sinking of the Ancona and the Persia had been nullified. The reply says "That whatever attitude the Washington cabinet may take as to individual questions raised here," the Austro-Hungarian government is "essentially in accord with the American government in regard to the protection of neutrals against endangering their lives."

The memorandum then maintains that "neutral subjects have to bear themselves all losses they suffer by entering territory where warlike operations are taking place."

After a lengthy discussion of the British blockade, which it declares is illegal, the memorandum continues: "The principle that neutrals should enjoy in war times the advantages of the freedom of the seas refers only to neutral vessels and not to neutral persons aboard enemy vessels."

The reply further contends that belligerents are entitled to decide for themselves what measures should be taken against an enemy in sea traffic and concludes:

"In such cases neutrals have no other legitimate interests and therefore have no legal claim than that of a prohibition directed to an enemy so that they can avoid entrusting their lives and their goods to enemy vessels."

The Austrian memorandum referring to the note on the Ancona case says that it "strictly adheres to the assurance already given."

At the same time, Austria calls attention to the fact that at the time of the Ancona incident it stated that it "reserved the right of bringing up later for discussion difficult international questions which arise in connection with submarine warfare."

The memorandum then adds: "It the Austro-Hungarian government now refers to this reservation and briefly discusses the question of the sinking of enemy vessels to which that note refers it is guided by a desire to show the American government that now, as heretofore, it strictly adheres to the assurance already given and endeavors, by clearing up that important question because it touches the laws of humanity to avoid misunderstanding between the monarchy and the American union."

The text of the Austrian reply to the United States is quoted as follows in a later Vienna dispatch from Reuters:

"From the memorandum of February 18 of the American ambassador the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister has concluded that the Washington cabinet, in view of statements made on February 10 of last year and on January 31, 1917, by the Austro-Hungarian government, is now in doubt regarding the attitude which Austria-Hungary will henceforth observe regarding the (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5.)

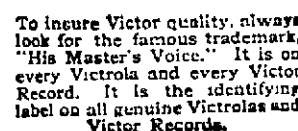

GERMAN PRIZE CREW LOSES APPAM CASE IN SUPREME COURT

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, March 6.—British claimants of the German prize ship Appam at Newport News, Va., today won their suit in the supreme court to regain possession of the vessel and cargo.

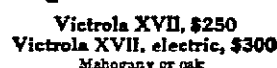

In sustaining the British libel attachment suits against the Appam and cargo the court held that the British owners are entitled to restitution because the Appam violated American neutrality.

Treaties of 1799 and 1828 between the United States and Germany, the court held, do not entitle German prizes, unaccompanied by the captor warship, to indefinite American asylum jurisdiction of American courts over the Appam was upheld.

Findings of federal Judge Waddill of Virginia that the Appam violated American neutrality after being brought into Hampton Roads a year ago by Captain Hans Berg and a German prize crew were sustained and approved by the court.

HERBST HUNTS LIONS FALLS FROM AIRPLANE AND IS HELD FOR RANSOM

Arthur Herbst, of Canton, who will be remembered by many as leader of the Nancy Boyer Stock company routers for the ball teams of 1907-'08, was in the city Sunday and Monday renewing old acquaintances. Mr. Herbst was business representative for Miss Boyer when she was playing stock at Idlewild Park and he became intimately acquainted with the players on the famous old near constant winning team. He was a consistent Newark router both in town and out and always claimed Newark as his second home.

Mr. Herbst has traveled over the country from coast to coast a half dozen times in the past ten years and has made two trips abroad. He took a company into South Africa and toured the principal cities in the diamond fields, enjoying several elephant and lion hunts and having several narrow escapes. He was also captured with two others by a hostile tribe and held for ransom for seven days before being released. He has had more adventures probably than any other man in Ohio, his latest being when he accompanied Aviator Duray on a trip over San Francisco bay last summer, the machine overturning and dumping both into the water from a height of several hundred feet, the men being rescued by the crew of a tug boat.

Mr. Herbst is business representative for Watson's U. S. Beauties, an American Wheel show which will be at the Auditorium next Monday night and which is said to be one of the best companies ever sent out on the road. At the close of the present season, Mr. and Mrs. Herbst will go to Alaska, where they will camp and rough it with a party of friends during the summer months.

Amusements

AUDITORIUM.

Picture Program at the Auditorium today will be the Metro masterpiece "Pigskin Island," which will be seen today only for tomorrow and Wednesday. Mary Pickford in "The Pride of the Clan" will be screened.

Harold Mac Grath's "Pigskin Island" was a judicious choice for a Lockwood-Alison vehicle, and the results attending its admirable production and enactment are certain to win praise for this latest offering. Scenes of China, day Mary Pickford in "The Pride of the Clan" will be screened.

This together with the 15th chapter of "The Crimson Stain Mystery" makes the picture in its entirety a most attractive capacity crowd.

Mary Pickford Tomorrow. Mary Pickford comes to the Auditorium tomorrow and Thursday in her second big Arctcraft feature, "The Pride of the Clan."

The legion of admirers of Mary Pickford will find much to please them in this picture, which is certain to enhance the popularity of their favorite. Director Tourneur has succeeded in weaving together a very pretty romance, illustrated with wonderfully attractive scenery and culminating in a storm and shipwreck effect that is a masterpiece of its kind.

In this connection he said that Miss Pickford scores an equal triumph in moods serious and merry. There is every possibility that the versatility she exhibits throughout the production will cause it to be listed by critics as the best film in which she has appeared during her extraordinarily successful career as a star of the silent drama. The picture is in all ready and the showings will start at 1:30 each day.

"The Guilty Woman." "The Guilty Woman" is the title of an adaptation of a powerful play that will be presented here for the first time at the Auditorium on next Friday evening.

It is said to be a strong, virile drama founded on fact and suggested by the newspaper reports of a happening that actually occurred in real life. After a preliminary tour of a few weeks, the play is scheduled for an extended New York engagement. Seats ready Wednesday.

The cast is probably as capable as one as could be selected for the play. Augusta Perry, who played the title role in "Madame X" is even better in the emotional role of the guilty woman than she was in "Madame X." John Davidson, who played the role of the son, takes almost an identical character in this play.

Sousa's Band Sunday. Sousa, with his well remembered, genial face and twinkling eyes behind the shining glasses, who made all the world march blithely to the march time he set with such world-famous numbers as "The Washington Post," the "Semper Paratus" and "The Stars and Stripes Forever," will be heard at the Auditorium on Sunday.

Let those who thrill at William Fox's masterful production of Hawthorne's "The Scarlet Letter" thank an outcast mongrel hound which saved the star, the director and the camera man from a terrible end.

Stuart Holmes, the star, Carl Harbaugh and Georges Benoit, director and camera man, left for New York one night from the Fox studio in New Jersey. The chauffeur was told to make the run in record time.

Traveling was becoming rough as the machine plunged along the dark road along the Palisades, when a dog was seen in the headlights' glare. "Stop," called Mr. Holmes. "A dog!" The chauffeur slammed his brakes. The dog scurried in fright into the woods.

Mr. Holmes is very superstitious. He believed the dog's appearance on the strange road a warning. He refused to go further until the road had been investigated.

With Mr. Harbaugh, the star walked ahead. Fifteen feet from where the car had been stopped, the road ended in a abyss. Mr. Holmes took a flashlight from his pocket and shot its rays into the dark gully. A sheer drop of 40 feet and the rocky bed of a little stream was revealed.

Mr. Holmes drew back, awed at the fate they had just escaped. "I wish I could find that dog," he said. "I'd give him a good home."

This feature will be seen at the Auditorium Sunday immediately after the Sousa band concert which is given in the afternoon.

C. S. Beauties. The smallest and youngest chorus on the wheels of show business, the well known authors will be offered at the Auditorium theater for two performances commencing next Monday afternoon, when Billy Watson's U. S. Beauties will be the offering.

Fidelis. "Manhattan Beach" and other marvels almost equally noted, will come to the Auditorium theater on next Sunday afternoon under the direction of Charles Fillingham.

For two seasons Mr. Sousa, with the great band that has been heard in more than 17,000 concerts over most of the civilized world, has confined his joyous concerts to the Spectacular New Hippodrome show, "Hip, Hip, Hooryay," during its long stay in New York and in the succeeding few cities of this country having remarkable seating and stage capacity.

Among the soloists to be heard with the Sousa concert will be Leonore Sitons, prima donna of the New York Hippodrome show; Herbert T. Clarke, cornetist; Louis P. Fritz, flutist, and Joseph Marthage, harpist. Seats ready Thursday morning.

"The Scarlet Letter." Let those who thrill at William Fox's masterful production of Hawthorne's "The Scarlet Letter" thank an outcast mongrel hound which saved the star, the director and the camera man from a terrible end.

Stuart Holmes, the star, Carl Harbaugh and Georges Benoit, director and camera man, left for New York one night from the Fox studio in New Jersey. The chauffeur was told to make the run in record time.

Traveling was becoming rough as the machine plunged along the dark road along the Palisades, when a dog was seen in the headlights' glare. "Stop," called Mr. Holmes. "A dog!" The chauffeur slammed his brakes. The dog scurried in fright into the woods.

Mr. Holmes is very superstitious. He believed the dog's appearance on the strange road a warning. He refused to go further until the road had been investigated.

With Mr. Harbaugh, the star walked ahead. Fifteen feet from where the car had been stopped, the road ended in a abyss. Mr. Holmes took a flashlight from his pocket and shot its rays into the dark gully. A sheer drop of 40 feet and the rocky bed of a little stream was revealed.

Mr. Holmes drew back, awed at the fate they had just escaped. "I wish I could find that dog," he said. "I'd give him a good home."

This feature will be seen at the Auditorium Sunday immediately after the Sousa band concert which is given in the afternoon.

C. S. Beauties. The smallest and youngest chorus on the wheels of show business, the well known authors will be offered at the Auditorium theater for two performances commencing next Monday afternoon, when Billy Watson's U. S. Beauties will be the offering.

A high class line of artists, a well drilled chorus whose members possess the ability to sing and dance, snappy comedy and new gorgeous costumes. Doris Claire, a comedienne, Billy Spencer, McCoy and the Clifford and Gallagher. See All, Mae Wagner, and Sam Wright, in two original burlesques entitled "Two Old Fools" and "At the Costume Party." Seats go on sale Friday morning.

"The Price She Paid." The first 30 days of distribution of "The Price She Paid" is said to have yielded $126,000 in bookings, while "The Price She Paid" is said to be the most successful of the Clara Kimball Young pictures, released through Selznick.

The above article appears in this week's picture journals and both pictures are soon to be seen at the Auditorium.

ALHAMBRA. Tonight. "You see what black hair and a foreign look for the new debutante Lenore Ulrich, the beautiful Morisco star who will be seen at the Alhambra tonight in the Pallas-Paramount production of "The Price She Paid." It doesn't look as if I will ever have a chance to play what I call 'white women's parts.' Always I am an Indian, an Arabian, a Hindu or a Hawaiian."

Wednesday and Thursday. Dropping two stories we find the Noxy. Tonight that statement would make you "sit up and take notice." They are merely small items in the big bill of laughs which you will receive after seeing "Tillie Wakes Up," which is the latest Marie Dressler feature. It will be at the Alhambra theater Wednesday and Thursday.

GEM. The management of the Gem theater announces the making of some of the best feature photoplays produced by the Bluebird photoplay company. This film concern produces one photoplay each week and has on its list of players some of the best known screen stars, including Mary MacLaren, Ruth Stonehouse, Cleo Madison and Harry L. Carey.

Entered as Second Class Matter
March 10, 1882, at the postoffice at Newark, Ohio, under the Act of March 4, 1879.

NEWARK'S GOVERNMENT.

Shall the form of Newark's city government be changed? Shall a commission plan, a city manager's plan, the federal plan or a combination of any or all of these, under a charter be adopted?

The first of these questions is to be answered by the electors of Newark at a special election to be held on Tuesday of next week. At this time it will be decided whether a majority of Newark citizens believe it to be better to have a charter framed, and 15 men will be voted upon to do this work. If it be decided in the affirmative,
There are several men who are willing to serve upon this charter commission. Fifteen of these have the support of the Efficient Government League the only organized agency supporting a change, while there is no organized opposition
to it.

A great many arguments are made in support of each of the plans proposed, and there are many made against any or all of them.
Some favor a straight commission plan, others the straight manager's plan, and not a few the federal, while a combination of the best features in each is advocated by many.

But those who do not think any one of the forms mentioned, or a conglomerate charter will make for more efficient government in Newark, will oppose the change upon general principles and vote against the charter. Should these votes be in the majority the present plan will be continued and the charter commission selected of course will have no work to do. Should the change be decided upon the 15 men elected will frame a charter and this then will be submitted to the people for ratification or rejection.

The supporters of a charter government contend that the adoption of one will, per se, rid the city of much cumbersome and expensive political machinery, tend to centralize responsibility, bring efficient men into the public service and reduce the expense of administration.

Opponents of the charter for-point to citizens who each plan has been tried and has not met with the unqualified success anticipated. They also argue that no government can be better than the men chosen to administer it, and that a mere change in the manner of selecting officials is no guarantee that they will be more honest or capable than those who have served in times past, or could be chosen under the present system if the better class took the proper interest in Newark's welfare, and saw to it that only men known to be honorable, capable and progressive were elected to office.

Each elector will have an opportunity on March 12 to vote his sentiments on this question and should do so. Many men are always free to criticize and find fault, and the loudest in denunciation of present ills, oftentimes will be those who do not even take interest enough to vote upon municipal affairs. At the coming election every citizen should go to the polls, after making up his mind to do his part toward putting the government of Newark upon a higher plane. He should then vote for what he considers the best way of doing this, but his responsibility does not end there. If a majority decides upon another plan than the one he thought best, his duty is to give his earnest efforts to work out the desired good along this line, and not sulk in his tent because all did not agree with him upon a method.

GRANVILLE ON SENATORIAL

for Pomerene for presentation to the Senate:

"Granville, O., March 5.
"The undersigned, citizens of Granville, Ohio, desire to express to the Senate our emphatic disapproval of the action of Senators Stone, Vardamann, LaFollette, Kirby, Cummings, O'Gorman, Works, Lane,
Clapp, Gronna, Norris, and Kenyon,
in using their power under the Senate rules to tie the hands of the President in his attempts to preserve the lives of our citizens and the honor and dignity of the country against murderous assaults and secrecy conspiracies. We can reconcile such action neither with respect for the plan implications of the Senatorial oath of office, nor with ordinary prudence in a time of crisis, when the blocking of the agencies of defense can act only as an invitation to the destruction of our citizens now on the seas.
"We ask of the great majority of the Senate, which has proved its loyalty so far, to press in the only final and effective way by such an immediate reorganization of its rules and its committee on Foreign Relations as will give to the President from the law-making body of the country that unflinching support which is his today in the hearts of the overwhelming mass of American citizens."

TREACHERY IN THE SENATE.

(Columbus Dispatch.)
By blocking legislation in the last hours of the session of congress and thus preventing the passage of the armed neutrality bill, twelve United States senators have written their names on the roll of undesirables, to say the least. The men who have acquired this infamy
are:

Clapp, of Minnesota.
Cummings, of Iowa.
Gronna, of North Dakota.
Kenyon, of Iowa.
LaFollette, of Wisconsin.
Norris, of Nebraska.
Works, of California.
Kirby, of Arkansas.
Lane, of Oregon.
O'Gorman, of New York.
Stone, of Missouri.

There is no fear that these men will be forgotten. They have deliberately interfered with the operation of the government when the nation was in peril. They have separated themselves in action from all the others in the senate and from 403
members of the house of representatives, and from the great mass of their countrymen, and have ranged themselves on the side of a foreign power that had been caught in a plot to overthrow the United States.
It is now evident that the German propaganda, conducted since the beginning of the war, has reached into both house and senate at Washington.

The unworthy conduct of these men has delayed, but it has not defeated the processes of government.

LEARNING HOW TO MAKE WAR.

(New York Times.)
General Townsend started for Bagdad with 20,000 men in 1915
and surrendered at Kut-el-Amara with 9,000 on April 28, 1916, the rest of his command having escaped.
General Maude started for Bagdad
with 120,000 men on December 13, 1916, and today the Turks are fleeing before him, with the whole Turkish position from Sanna-Yat to Kut-el-Amara in his hands. It is a significant and instructive proof that the British have at last learned,
not how to fight, but how to make war. The insignificant force with which Townsend was sent on his fatal expedition, with no way prepared of supporting him, was an evidence that in 1915 Britain was still governed by the same belief that war is easy that Colonel Churchill expressed when he jauntily predicted that the rats at Kiel would be dug out if they would not come out.
The expedition which has now succeeded with such success is no more gallant than was Townsend's, but England has learned that gallantry alone
does not win campaigns.

Our Forest Wastage.
Figures of the Federal Department of Agriculture show that $700,000,000—$7 for every man, woman and child in the United States—represents the nation's annual forest wastage through insect pests and tree disease. These statistics do not take into consideration
all the tremendous loss through forest fires, wastefulness round mills and logging camps, etc., which would perhaps almost double the stupendous total.—Atlanta Constitution.

From Our Contemporary.
 And at least one of our vessels has been sunk. Several American citizens have lost their lives as a result of these attacks. To what extent Germany will go, if our vessels are armed and pursue their legiti-mate business remains to be seen.
But in no event can we consent to have our vessels locked in harbors
and not allowed to ply their legiti-mate trade. And still less can we who knows but what a pleasant future might yet be arranged for him.

Did You Know

That the Pinacothek in Munich was completed in 1836 after designs by the architect, Klenze? The main gallery is one of the most important in Europe, in its contents.
One compartment contains only the works of Raphael; while the largest hall in the building is devoted to ninety-five works by Rubens. The building is itself a monument of art, one of its corridors being divided into twenty-five loggie frescoed
by Cornelius, with works illustrative of the history of the fine arts in the middle ages. The lower story of the building contains 9,000 drawings by the old masters; the original drawings for Cornelius's loggie; and a cabinet of more than 300,000 engravings.

F. G. I.
Forget it, please, remember
That I am a friend to you,
And as for getting angry
That's a thing I could not do.
The I may act peculiar
And oft let my fingers roll,
I assure you that I always Keep my temper in control.

I have my faults like others
Also troubles without end,
But with all this I would never Wound the feelings of a friend.
So if my words mislead you,
Or my thoughts you can't define,
Recall, I ask, to memory,
My recent valentine.

You wonder who's my sweetheart?
Well that's rather hard I guess,
For almost any fellow
To so often confuses
But as you seem so curious
I will say that I opine,
With the great love name closely
It will tell you, I got mine.

When I G with his regiment
Marched proudly off to war,
He followed in the footsteps
Of his sires in days of yore
Who bravely faced the British
With the great love name close by,
And under Lincoln's banner
In the days of sixty-one
No doubt he grew excited
As he tried to figure why
His sweetheart failed to lay her head
Upon his breast and cry
For since we've learned the secret
He has made this vow you bet it!
All talcum is hereafter barred,
So please don't you, "Forget It,"

supinely sit and see our citizens murdered. This is the situation.
It has brought the test. It is the thing that has meant the parting of the ways. It is no longer a matter of sympathy with one set of belligerents or another. It is a matter of pride in and defense of American citizenship and its rights. On that question there can be no division of sentiment.—Newark American Trib-

On American Border.
There are large numbers of able-bodied Americans in Texas, New Mexico and Arizona who will smile derisively at Dr. Zimmermann's idea that those weak little States can be Belgium, even with the help of Mexicans. These three small Ameri-

Open the Windows.
It has been abundantly demonstrated that good ventilation pays,
but in the absence of artificial methods for use in cold weather, much more can be accomplished by window ventilation than usually is.
Some attention to the matter and to the direction and force of the wind will usually find a means of admitting air to and exhausting it from the room in sufficient quantity and at the same time so diffusing it that no objectionable draft will be concentrated on any one.—Industrial

Farmers and Meat Production.
There has been an increase in meat production in this country of late, if reliance can be placed on the superficial aspect of the statistics. Receipts at the nine principal markets of the country in the fiscal year of the packing houses ended September 30 were 9,650,000 head in 1916, as compared with 8,444,166 head in 1915. This is a gain of almost 1,200,000 head of cattle. Receipts of hogs in 1916 were 25,258-000, as compared with 21,366,265 in 1915.—Milwaukee Wisconsin.

DO YOU SUFFER
FROM BACKACHE

When your kidneys are weak and torpid they do not properly perform their functions; your back aches and you do not feel like doing much of anything. You are likely to be despondent and to borrow trouble,
just as if you hadn't enough already. Don't be a victim any longer.

The old reliable medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla, gives strength and tone to the kidneys and builds up
the whole system.
Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar combination of roots, barks and herbs. No other medicine acts like it, because no other medicine has the same formula or ingredients. Accept no substitute, but insist on having Hood's, and get it today.—Adv.

Says Simple Remedy
Prolonged His Life

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin Effective as a Remedy for Constipation.
Among older people the various organs of the body have a tendency to slow up and weaken, and this is usually first manifested in a pronounced inactivity of the bowels.
Good health is dependent on regularity in this important function;
whenever there is the slightest indication of constipation a mild laxative should be taken to relieve the congestion and dispose of the accumulated waste. Cathartics or purgatives should not be employed,
however; these are too violent in action and their effect is only temporary.

A mild laxative such as the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is the ideal remedy.
It is gentle in its action, bringing relief in an easy, natural manner, without gripping or other pain or discomfort, is pleasant to the taste, and can be obtained in any drug store.
Mr. Robert LeForge, 918 Kirkwood Boulevard, Davenport, Iowa, says he has always had a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in the house for the past eighteen years,
and that by using it occasionally as the need arises, and in this way keeping his health good, it has prolonged his life, and brought ease and comfort.

ZANESVILLE MAN GETS TANLAC ON ADVICE OF HIS MOTHER

TELLS WHAT IT DID FOR HIM

"In three weeks after I started taking Tanlac I had gained 17 pounds," said William Hoydenreich, 638 Putnam avenue, a prominent Zanesville man. "I not only weighed more, but I felt 100 per cent better than I had for years."

"I had been in poor health for a long time. My stomach was all out of sorts. I didn't have any appetite, and what I did eat didn't do me any good. I got weak, run down, and lost weight."

"My nerves went back on me, and I got so I rolled and tumbled half the night before I got to sleep. And when I got up in the morning I felt tired and fagged out. I had bad tastes in my mouth, and when I'd bend over and raise up quickly, my head would throb and ache and I'd get dizzy."

Food Heavy on Stomach.
"When I belched, a sour bitter taste came up in my throat. There would seem to be a heavy weight in the pit of my stomach."

"I felt tired and droopy nearly all the time, and didn't have any ambition to do anything. My mother was worried about me and kept trying to get me to try Tanlac. She said she knew it would help me because it helped so many of her friends."

"Finally I decided to try it, and it was the best thing I ever did. It straightened me out in no time. I took two bottles of it and gained 17 pounds. That was eight months ago."

Felt Much Better.
"I felt so much better then that I quit taking it. I haven't had to take any medicine since, until a few days ago when I began to feel a little under the weather, and so I went down and got some more Tanlac."

"The reason I am recommending Tanlac is because it did me so much good. And I think every person who feels like I did should know it."

Gossip From State House

Columbus, March 6.—While differing from the Kansas double election board plan, a bill has been introduced in the Ohio General assembly by Senator Gilmore of Preble county which is designed to accomplish the same thing as the Kansas plan—quicker returns on election day.

It provides for opening the ballot boxes at stated intervals on election day for the purpose of canvassing the vote and thus avoid delay by deferring the count until the polls close. It will enable election boards to eliminate many precincts, it is said.

There are many other new features to the Gilmore bill. It provides for one universal registration this year and no further general registration. A card system would be used to list all voters. Failing to vote for three years would result in the cancellation of the electors registration card and in order to again vote he or she would have to make application for registration as a new voter. The bill seeks to place deputy state supervisors of elections and the chief clerks on a straight salary basis instead of allowing them compensation according to the number of precincts. In counties having a population of 300,000 or more the supervisors would receive $3,500 and the chief clerk $4,500 a year; in counties having a population of 150,000, supervisors, $2,700; chief clerk, $3,200; in counties having a population of 50,000 supervisors, $1,200, chief clerk, $1,800; in counties having a population of 20,000, supervisors, $1,000; clerk, $1,500; in counties of less than 20,000, supervisors, $600; clerk, $1,000.

Governor Cox is said to be favorable to the measure introduced by Senator Gilmore, but owing to the press of other matters it may not be passed this session. The governor is said to favor a general survey of the election laws between the close of the present session of the general assembly and the next session.

The appropriation bill carrying out the recommendations of Governor Cox in his biennial budget was said to be ready today for introduction in the house by the finance committee. Passage of this bill will probably be the last act of the assembly before it recesses Thursday.

The emergency tax measure was before the lower house today for action. It passed the Senate with only one dissenting vote and is also expected to pass the house. County auditors in every county in the state are waiting for the passage of this act so they may proceed with the annual assessment of personal property which is to begin early in April.

An attempt will be made to pass the Hunter bill to appropriate $11,000 for a new woman's building at Ohio State University before the recess Thursday. Governor Cox will sign the bill if it is passed supporters of the measure said today, although he did not include it in his budget recommendations.

The Reynolds bill to authorize the creation of a reservoir at the junction of Summit, Geauga and Portage counties having been reported favorably for passage is today in the House calendar for passage today.

Republican Floor Leader Frank Reighard of the House declared today that Republicans in the House would not oppose a probe of election expenses as proposed in a resolution offered in the house late yesterday by Representative James Reynolds of Cleveland at the instance of Governor Cox.

"But we shall insist that it be a fair investigation," said Reighard. The Reynolds resolution provides for a joint committee of six, three to be appointed by the speaker of the house and three to be appointed by the president of the senate. They are to be given power to employ legal counsel, summon witnesses and compel their attendance and the production of books and records. They are to investigate expenses of organizations and individuals in the pre-primary and pre-election campaign. The committee is to report to the next session with recommendations for strengthening the corrupt practices act.

Over the opposition of the Ohio graduate nurses' association, the senate last night passed the Wright bill amending the nurses registration law established two years ago, lowering the educational qualifications so as to permit grammar grade pupils to become registered nurses.

The Terrell bill for relief of cities, an administration measure, introduced last night will be pressed for immediate passage in the senate. Republicans will oppose it and urge passage of the Galbreath bill for relief of cities.

"THE CRUCIFIX."

The world of music always gives an enthusiastic reception to a new Victor duet by Glick and Homer, and this month these two great voices have again united to make a fine song even lovelier to our ears. They sing "The Crucifix" by Jean Faure, which is rapidly becoming as great a favorite as this same composer's, "The Palms." Glick and Homer realize its high level of inspiration, and they make it a thing of eloquent beauty. Indeed, Marcel Journet, the great basso, has made for himself so brilliant a reputation as Mephistopheles in "Faust," that it seems only just he should be heard in a sacred number. In "O Salutaris" Journet enters the spirit of the old Latin hymn as deeply as he enters into the operatic roles which have made him famous as a singer of intense dramatic force.

SENATOR MILLER'S

RESOLUTION ADOPTED

CRITICIZING SENATE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, March 6.—The Ohio senate yesterday adopted a resolution criticizing the national senate for refusing to pass the armed neutrality bill as requested by President Wilson. The house quickly followed the senate's lead.

Following is the text of the resolution:

"Be it resolved: That the general assembly of Ohio deplors the situation which has been created by a pitiful minority of the United States Senate of eloquent beauty. Indeed, Marcel Journet, the great basso, has made for himself so brilliant a reputation as Mephistopheles in "Faust," that it seems only just he should be heard in a sacred number. In "O Salutaris" Journet enters the spirit of the old Latin hymn as deeply as he enters into the operatic roles which have made him famous as a singer of intense dramatic force."

The resolution was offered by Senator Miller of Licking county and a copy of the resolution was ordered sent to congress.

GENUINE RELIGION IS SOLUTION TO MOST OF WORLD'S BIG PROBLEMS

"Genuine religion has been handicapped because of men's misunderstanding, because forms have been too greatly emphasized and because creeds have been substituted for religious life, and faith for works of righteousness," said Rev. J. W. Grimmer of Belleville, in discussing the subject "What is Religion?" at the meeting of the Universalist mission in the convention room of the court house.

"Worship is universal," he said, "and religion is more than creed. Jesus said 'except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven,' yet those people were religious so far as creed or ceremony were concerned. Re-seek to answer fundamental questions. The other two subjects are "What is Christianity?" and "What is Universalism?"

Meetings are held each Friday night at 8 o'clock in the convention room of the court house. Mr. Grimmer is addressing these meetings. He is pastor of a church at Belleville and is president of the Ohio Young People's Christian Union and a member of the executive board of the Ohio Universalist convention.

FIVE MILE HIKE IS GOOD FOR APPETITE TEUSCHER DECLARES

A. P. "Dutch" Teuscher and his two athletic sons, Kenneth and Willard, received an invitation to participate in a chicken dinner at the Charles Bader home five miles south of the city, Sunday. It is needless to say that it was accepted and "Dutch" and his boys started on a hike for the farm. A snow storm came up while on the road and the pater familias was in favor of abandoning the hike but his hopefuls kept his waning courage up by painting word pictures of noodles and chicken at the end of the journey, which was finally reached and a good time enjoyed. The return start home was made in the face of the blizzard raging late Sunday afternoon, but "Dutch" braved it out and arrived safely and today is boasting to his friends of what a wonderful curative power hiking exercises over the human system.
